September 21, 2009

Weather: What an ideal day it was as we enjoyed a fabulous end of summer day, sunny, in the 70's – most ideal!

Attendance: 25 Lexington Rotarians, 3 visiting Rotarians, no visitors – Holly K. finally made it today as a member.

Pledge of Allegiance was led by PP Frank S., Verse of America by Charlie V., and invocation given by yours truly. Charlie V. led the Welcome song, and my only comment on that was that “it was not too bad” this time!

Fines were aplenty, and included the following: President Doug, PP Dan B., Secretary David S., for the wonderful time at the family barbeque at Hayden held this past Sun, Sept. 20, Marian A. on PP Dan B. for a bad joke, PP Spencer B. on himself for a good time spent last week-end, and Jim S. on himself for buying a new dog – enjoy your new pet, Jim!

The club welcomed as its newest member, who was inducted today and sponsored by yours truly, Holly Kingsforth. Another new member we hope to have, who was a guest with us today, is Kay Horiuchi, who is a registered nurse at the Lahey Clinic and currently a Rotarian at another club, who will be transferring to the Rotary Club of Lexington.

Raffle gifts were donated by: Walpole Cooperative Bank, Arlex, Wagon Wheel Nursery, Charlie V.

Our speaker for the meeting was District Governor Ingrid Brown, introduced by Assistant DG Steve May. Born in Philadelphia, DG Brown grew up with military parents and had moved around quite often. Eventually, she settled in Rockport, MA, where she owns her own insurance agency. DG Brown presented a new flag to President Doug. One of her basic goals is to increase membership in Rotary, and she feels that everyone should try to nominate at least one candidate for Rotary membership. Her experience in San Diego, at the District Governors' meeting appeared to be amazing. She heard Bill Gates Jr.-truly a man with an astounding experience of growth and industriousness. As a gift to our new member Holly K., DG Brown gave Holly a necklace actually presented to her from one of the District Governors from Brazil. What a nice way for Holly to start her membership – what an honor! You can change the future of Rotary is the theme for this year, with three main items on the agenda:

1. Increasing water availability and quality throughout the world, especially in third world countries,
2. Developing peace,
3. Increasing literacy.

These are the goals of the Rotary International President Mike. DG Brown discussed getting involved with the Rotary Foundation, since it has been hit hard with the economy, but she reminded us to fill in the paperwork, now, stating the wait for our district will not be as long as it could be. Also, she mentioned the future pilot program, which will help to control disease in child health, increasing literacy, and increase an economic well-being for those around us.
