March 22, 2010

It was a cloudy day with sprinkles in the 40's, but cheer exuded inside as 23 Rotarians and 4 visitors met today. Pledge of allegiance was led by PP Jim F., "America" by Charlie V. and invocation by PP Dan L. Charlie V. led us in the Welcome song.

Fines abounded today: Sec. David S. on himself—happy to still be in March Madness, President Doug on himself in honor of just returned to our meetings PP Dan L—welcome back, Dan, and stay healthy! PP Spencer B. paid happy $-- his school beat Notre Dame. Julianne pitched in some $-- Michigan State beat Maryland. Charlie V. fined PP Spencer B. for his picture being in the Colonial Times. Sorry if I omitted anyone—fines just kept flying! Nice going everyone!

On upcoming events, Connie N. reminded us all to be sure we are selling tickets. President Doug mentioned that Queen City Rotary Club of Manchester, N.H. held a Comedy Night and raised about $30,000. Connie N. Re: Patriot's Day preparation, said she assumes all is going well. PP Bob S. announced that Patriot's Day assignments are going to be mailed out soon.

President Doug will represent Lexington Rotary on the Nominating Committee as the Lexington Lions select this year's Tricorn winner.

Winners for raffle gifts included one of our guests who won the Lexington Alarms entry—a nice pizza! Connie N. won a pen and gave it to a guest—nice Connie! The 50/50 raffle was won by PP Bob S.

President Doug reminded us of the Annual Spring Conference which will be held at the Samoset Resort in Maine on May 21-23. VP David B. wants us to all notify him regarding what committee we want to serve on during his upcoming term as club president.

VP David B. introduced our speaker, Dr. Bob Cary. Bob is a B.U. Medical School graduate and cardiologist in Arlington, MA. He spoke about his trials and tribulations as he was introducing and teaching use of the defibrillator in the 1960s at Symmes Hospital in Arlington. His talk included many funny and touching stories. Bob has worked in South America as a physician and said he has learned, with great pride, about life and death from none other than his patients. American medical students going to Latin America to study and work is a major interest of Bob's. His wife has been a major supporter in his life's learning in helping people, especially including the poor. President Doug informed Bob about Rotary International's leadership role in Polio Plus and also rotoplast, the cleft lip and palate program Rotary sponsors.

Next week's speaker will be Dr. Nicolas Rofougaran, who will speak about conflict resolution with children.
