May 3, 2010

Twenty-seven Rotarians, one visiting Rotarian and two guests gathered for an early summer meeting at Palio's Restaurant on scenic Hartwell Avenue in Lexington.

It was quite confusing as to who brought whom to the meeting, but PP Nick C. seemed to have claiming rights to long-time resident guest Scott Fisher.

PP Dave E. paid for a new car. (The former must have gotten dirty, so he dumped it)

PP Dan B. Paid happy dollars for the wonders of fresh, clean, plentiful well water, which he did not have to boil over the weekend.

PP Spencer B. gets the Rotary Club fitness award for running in the "Cape Run" this past weekend. He was so pleased with his finish (10,649th) that he paid happy dollars as well.

And as far as payouts go – Charlie V. walked off with the 50/50.

PP Dave E. reports the "House" being built with his guidance and Rotary's blessing on Woburn Street is nearing completion. No unions on this job, but apparently getting the MM Vocational School to put the finish push on is a challenge. PP Bob S volunteered to help with the landscaping- at which point Dave E shut off his hearing aid.

Monday the 24th the Lexington Club will take its turn hosting the GSE team. Pres. Doug asked for a few club members help in the morning as they are touring Lexington and Concord. Please let Doug know as soon as possible if you can be of assistance in any way.

Our guest speaker was Alexandra Bartsch (daughter of Scott Fisher) who told her story of growing up in Lexington, going through the schools to college and law school- finally to end up in St. Thomas where she was married and had her daughter.

After moving back to the Lexington home she was raised in to raise her daughter, Alex became involved in many school and town activities. With spare rooms on the second floor, she decided to open a Bed & Breakfast. Interestingly, most of her business comes from the www and referrals from the Visitors Center. The Bed & Breakfast guests give her and her daughter a continuous exposure to interesting people, cultures, stories and new friends. Sounds like a great place for "Mother-in-law" to stay when she comes to town!
