July 12, 2010

It was a sunny, hot and humid day on July 12th when David Brother conducted his first meeting as the new President of the Rotary Club of Lexington. Due to the closing of Palio's Restaurant, the Club has relocated its meetings to the Brookhaven Retirement Community thanks to the graciousness of PP Jim F. We will be meeting at Brookhaven until the new establishment, Waxy O'Connor's, opens on Hartwell Avenue. Twenty-five Lexington Rotarians and three guests enjoyed a luncheon of cold cuts, potato, Jello and green salads, seasonal fresh fruit and home baked cookies.

Raffle gifts were donated by Arlex Oil and Walpole Cooperative Bank and they were won by PP Jim F., Adrienne C and PP Don M. Immediate Past President Doug led us in the Pledge of Allegiance, Adrienne tuned us for both the 1st Verse of America and the Welcome song and PP Don S. conducted a moving invocation.

Fifty Happy Dollars were given by Secretary Dave S. in celebration of the birth of his son, Joseph Patrick. PP Don S. contributed $20 in honor of his Mom who has been lying about her age all these years in that she was really 101 on July 10th and not 100 as she would have everybody believe! PP Nick C. had to part with another $20 for yet another vacation, he wants to know if he can pay only when he is NOT on vacation instead??? Both Jim S. and Adrienne C. paid $10 happy dollars, he for a vacation in Maine and a boat that was operational and she for a trip to Las Vegas

During his announcements President Dave thanked PP Jim F. for hosting us in light of the Palios closing and he read a thank you note from one of the Scholarship recipients from LCA. Secretary Dave S. also reported that we had received a thank you note from scholarship recipient ,Megan Murphy from LHS (not our newest member). PP and webmaster, Dan Busa directed us to visit the Club's website which has been updated to reflect our new officers and initiatives of our club. President Dave also requested that each Committee Chair submit to him at least one goal for this Rotary year.

In one of his first official duties as President, Dave Brother inducted Megan Murphy as the newest member of our Club, she is sponsored by Kay H, Megan told us that she is a native Lexingtonian, she attended college in the Pacific Northwest but moved back East a few years ago. Megan is a real estate agent and works with her Mom, Joyce Murphy, at Raveis Real Estate. She now has the pleasure of having Rotarian Dave S. as her office manager.

This summer's first Classification talk was given by Domenic S. who is an architect and has lived in Lexington with his family for 11 years. Dom thanked PP Dan B. for introducing him to the Club. In his architecture practice Dom has specialized in working with high end hotels like the Ritz, Four Seasons, Burlington Marriott, the Boston Hotel at Rowes Wharf and the former Meridien hotel in the design of all public areas of these properties. As with many businesses, the current economic climate has required Dom and his firm to diversify his practice and he now is also available for both residential and commercial re-designs. Dom is particularly proud of the Lexington Prep project where the former Fairlawn Nursing Home was converted to a school for international students who wish to be immersed in American culture and the English language before attending such college preparatory schools as Andover- Exeter and Phillips Academies. Both PP Dan B. and Dom S. are very pleased to have recently been invited to sit on the Board of Directors of Lexington Prep.

The $60.00 50/50 Raffle was won by PP Dave E.

Remember, see everyone at Brookhaven next week.
