August 30, 2010

Our meeting on this last Monday of August was held on a sunny, warm summer day. There were 22 Rotarians present at Brookhaven where we had veggie lasagna, garlic bread, salad, and brownies for a delicious lunch. The Pledge of Allegiance was led by Steve K., one verse of America followed led by PP Bill C., and PP Dan L. gave the Invocation.

We had quite a few happy dollars (HD) given today. PP Don M. gave HD in honor of his First wedding anniversary today and Adrienne C. gave HD to celebrate her father's 83rd birthday. Secy Dave S. gave vacation HD for two weeks on the Cape. PP Bill C. gave HD as school in starting up again and P Dave B. gave vacation HD for time on the Cape and out to Carlisle, PA for an annual Corvette rally. PP Dan B. shared an inspiring Gordon and Edna story...if you didn't hear it, definitely ask him about it. PP Dan L. gave HD in honor of his friendship with Megan M.'s grandfather, Chuck Sullivan.

As there were no visitors, everyone paid the 'no visitors' fine. Jim S. paid a $2 fine for questioning about the 'name badge situation' that had already been worked out.

Here are this week's announcements –

- There is a call into LHS's principal to set up a Vocational Day this school year.
- Between Dave S. and P Dave B., we will get some new member packets.
- PP Dan B. reported that he and PP Dave E. will be meeting with Ryan from Waxy O'Connor's next week to discuss pricing, menu, etc. They should be having a 'soft opening' in mid-September.

Raffle donations were from Walpole Cooperative, Arlex Oil, and PP Bill C. They were won by PP Dan B., PP Bill C., P Dave B., Meaghan M., and Steve K.

Our classification talk today was by Meaghan Sullivan Murphy. As a lifelong resident of Lexington, she is the daughter of Gary and Joyce. Her brothers are James and Patrick. James is in commercial real estate and lives in San Francisco. Patrick is married to Susan and he is a Lt. Commander in the U.S. Navy. Meaghan's grandparents are Ruth and Chuck Sullivan and Tip and Grace Murphy. Many remember both couples.

Meaghan is thankful for growing up in a community like Lexington. She was ready to graduate LHS and continued her studies at Evergreen State College in Washington State. She spent a summer in Russia and also studied abroad in Ireland. During college she studied and became interested in liminality. This is a Latin word meaning 'threshold'. It is 'the space in between'. Examples would be the shoreline, a cave, a spring, a doorway. It could be twilight or a seasonal change. Immigrants can be in this description. It's going from chaos to order, death to new birth. As Meaghan works as a real estate agent, she guides people through a time of liminality. Forms of negotiation are liminal. Meaghan encouraged us to look for the liminal aspects in our lives and to examine them. She closed with an Irish proverb, "Reality is that place between the sea and the foam." It was great to hear about Meaghan's family and her experiences.

The 50/50 was won by PP Dan O. with the winning ticket # 647 in the amount of $50.

No meeting next week due to Labor Day – enjoy your long weekend.
